Roscommon Woman Dies After Traffic Accident

Josephine Moleski, 68, of Roscommon, died after her vehicle went off the expressway into some trees about two miles north of Roscommon-Crawford county line.

Sunday night the Houghton Lake State Police Post and Roscommon County Sheriff Dept. received reports that a vehicle was northbound in the southbound I-75 lanes and then went into the median into some trees. The vehicle was located at 10:43 about two miles north of the county line and the Beaver Creek Fire Dept. started CPR immediately. Moleski was transported to Grayling Mercy Hospital where she was pronounced dead.

Firefighters were able to quickly extinguish the fire, believed to have started as a grease fire in the kitchen. Only minor damage was reported.

Annual Winter Sports Roast Sat., Oct. 26 — "Servin' Irvin"

Once again, the time is at hand for the annual roast to benefit the Grayling Winter Sports Carnival.

This year's recipient of richly deserved ridicule will be none other than Irving "Servin' Irvin" McIsaac...the Box-car Willie of Grayling. Irvin has established himself as somewhat of a legend hereabouts, and a distinguished panel of roasters has been assembled to present a public humiliation of verbal abuse that will live in infamy.

Don't miss the fun, Saturday, Oct. 26, at the Knights of Columbus. Cash bar at 6:30, dinner at 7:30, and the toasting, roasting, broasting of the retired railroader and disorderly orderly at 8:30. Tickets are going fast at the low, low price of $8.50, and are available at the Cornell Building, Mac's Drugs, Chamber of Commerce, R & H Sports, Bear's Country Inn, Rutter's Window & Door, and other locations worldwide.

How Much Would You Bid For A Dozen Pot Holes?

By Benjamin Butts
United Way Volunteer

At last Thursday's meeting of a United Way committee, everyone had a zillion great ideas of items for the live auction and evening of fun on November 9th. Maybe the classic was Gloria Kraus' offer of a dozen pot holes from the County Road Commission. Guess they don't want them.

Just think, where could you get a dozen pot holes for your very own and only spend a $100 for helping others? And they would be tax deductible.

Oh yes, then there is the cocktail drinker's wrist watch where all the numerals are 5. Hey, anytime would be five o'clock and time for a party. You can name the price for this treasure at the K of C Hall, November 9th, and help the United Way pass its Big, Big Goal of $29,000.

The Commercial Division of the Crawford County United Way has really started cooking to make the 7 to 11 p.m. evening of November 9th one to remember, an up-up-up event. Plan now to get a party together for an evening of good fun, giving, sharing and helping — The United Way.

Does American Red Cross Deserve Your Financial Support?

Do you realize that if your home was destroyed by fire, or a tree fell on it and made it unliveable, or a tornado destroyed it — and you did not have insurance to cover the loss — that Crawford

County Chapter/American Red Cross would provide food, clothing, and, if necessary, temporary shelter, for the immediate emergency period? Almost everyone knows that American Red Cross is first on the job in every national disaster — like the recent Caribbean storm Elena which created havoc and hundreds of millions of

Grayling Man Receives Life-Saving Award

The American Red Cross Certificate of Merit — the highest honor bestowed by the American Red Cross — and presented only to individuals who have saved the life of another fellowman by the application of life-saving procedures learned in First Aid, Cardiac Pulmonary Resuscitation or other Life Saving training by American Red Cross instructors, will be awarded to Staff Sergeant Michael Lee Palmer of the Michigan National Guard, stationed at Camp Grayling at a public reception at the Holiday Inn of Grayling at 7:30 p.m. on the evening of October 24th.

The Certificate of Merit bears the signature of President, Ronald Reagan, Honorary Chairman of the American Red Cross, and George F. Moody, Chairman of American Red Cross.

The Certificate of Merit was instituted in American Red Cross in 1928 and in the ensuing 57 years just under 9000 have been awarded. Staff Sergeant Palmer's will be the first Certificate of Merit presented to an individual in Northern Michigan.

On March 10th of this year Staff Sergeant Ricky D. Youngs was eating a sandwich in the Mess Hall of Camp Grayling when a piece of the sandwich became lodged in his throat and he was unable to breathe. As he was staggering, clutching his throat, unable to speak, Sergeant Palmer standing a few feet away noticed his condition, recognized that he was undoubtedly choking, and managed to reach him before he collapsed and lost consciousness.

Sergeant Palmer, as he had been trained in Red Cross First Aid, applied four forceful blows to Sergeant Youngs' back but this did not release the choking, so he applied the forceful upward abdominal thrusts, as taught, and the foreign matter was successfully dislodged.

This action by Sergeant Palmer saved Sergeant Youngs' life and it is for this he is being awarded the American Red Cross Certificate of Merit.

All of the American Red Cross Volunteers in Crawford County are elated at this proof of the importance of First Aid, CPR, and other Life Saving Training by American Red Cross and all 31 of Crawford County's Red Cross First Aid, CPR, and Swimming Instructors are proud of this example of the effectiveness of their Volunteer Training work.

County Goes Ahead With Jail Renovation

By Jon Thompson

Renovation of the Crawford County jail to bring it up to state codes has been approved by the county board of commissioners and the county building authority.

The $27,300 estimated project is expected to start next month. Donald Morgridge, a Gaylord architect in charge of the renovation, is seeking bids on the project.

County commissioners are hoping the outside walls of a 20-foot by 21-foot addition are up before heavy snows come.

The 20 x 21 room, an indoor recreational area for inmates, is the only addition included in the renovation. The indoor recreation room will be built on the southwest corner of the courthouse where the outside recreational area is now. The outside recreation fenced-in area will be moved out farther. The indoor recreation room will be the same level as the other main floor rooms at the courthouse.

The estimated cost of the addition is $10,000. The walls will be concrete block with two inches of rigid insulation. The roof will be reinforced concrete deck with two inches of rigid insulation and sheet vinyl roofing. The $10,000 included lighting, heating, and ventilation installment, two security doors, and security exterior windows.

Four areas in the jail are slated for renovation.

An existing room will have a shower and toilet installed along with a standard bunk and table. Other improvements will be made to allow the room to be used for housing of inmates. The cost is estimated at $6,200. With this renovation, the maximum capacity for the jail will be increased from 20 to 22.

The visitors area will be remodeled to include a secured no-contact visitation room for high-risk inmates. Visitors will also no longer have to go through the jail's secured area to reach the visiting area. The cost for the renovating the visiting area is $3,900.

The drunk tank will have a 2 foot by 8 foot window installed to allow direct supervision. Other improvements will be made at a cost of about $2,800.

Total construction cost is estimated at $22,900. Engineer and architect fees are $3,400. $1,000 was included in the estimate of the project for any extra problems that were uncovered during renovation.

County Cracks Down on Jail Medical Costs

Crawford County is taking advantage of a state law passed in 1982 that allows a jail inmate to be charged for medical expenses during their stay.

In the past, the county has paid an average of $5,000 to $7,000 a year for dental and other medical expenses for county inmates. The amount is expected to be higher in 1985 as one inmate alone incurred $3,500 in medical expenses.

Now the county is billing inmates for medical problems taken care of during their stay in the jail. Inmates with money are required to pay and inmates with a job can be charged monthly to pay off a medical bill. If an inmate is deemed indigent with little chance of collecting money from him or her, the county does not go ahead with the billing procedure.

The county has already been able to collect some money through the process, according to jail administrator Michael Johnson.

Local Contractors Invited To Informational Meeting On 2 School Projects

An informational meeting for local contractors interested in bidding for portions of the Grayling Middle School and Grayling Elementary School projects will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, October 28, at the middle school library.

Bill Coberley, construction manager for the projects, will discuss bonding, bid scopes, proposals, and the construction management process.

The school board set up the meeting to help local contractors and keep as many contracts as possible with local businesses. All local contractors are invited.

The addition at the middle school may be started as soon as April 5th, 1986.

In other school news, a property transfer, request in Beaver Creek Township was denied October 9 by the C.O.O.R. Intermediate Board of Education.

The request was to move Section 22 in Beaver Creek Township from the Crawford AuSable School District to the Gerrish-Higgins School District. The section has state equalized values at about $136,000 and generates about $3,400 in tax revenue each year for the Crawford AuSable School District.

The request started from a family who moved into the section this year. The children had attended Gerrish-Higgins schools in previous years and the family thought the section was in the Gerrish-Higgins district.

The family has requested information about appealing the decision from the COOR office and has ten days from October 9th to file an appeal with the state board of education.

Local Doctors Lead 'Onward to Lansing'

Forty-seven physicians from Grayling, Gaylord, West Branch, and Cadillac, are traveling by bus, Tuesday, October 22, to Lansing to participate in the "Onward to Lansing" Rally protesting escalating professional liability insurance premiums and to demonstrate the need for tort reform.

Dr. Charles Oppy, Roscommon, and Dr. William George, Grayling, are coordinating the Grayling to Lansing rally. Dr. Oppy said physicians from all over the state will be in Lansing to participate in the rally, meet with legislators and share ideas on reform. He added, "on the state level, the Michigan State Medical Society (MSMS) is organizing the rally that expects to see 5,000 participants at the Lansing Civic Center in Lansing, October 22."

The MSMS is emphasizing three themes for the Rally:

1. The professional liability crisis costs everyone — not just doctors. It costs the public in terms of availability and price of medical care. It costs injured parties in terms of lengthy delays and the great expense involved with collecting awards.

2. While the purpose of the rally is to foster reform of the medical professional liability situation, the crisis in medical professional liability is only one example of problems with the legal tort system...the state, cities, schools, restaurateurs and others, are experiencing the same kinds of problems as the health care community. Symptoms indicate the system is ill and in need of a legislative remedy.

3. We are holding a rally (in part) to provide support to legislators fashioning a remedy. Many legislators are sympathetic and have already laid the groundwork for reform. Legislators, like most people, do not react favorably to threats or demands — but they do appreciate our support. MSMS is emphasizing that the legislators be treated with courtesy and respect.

Dr. George said, "the situation has just simply gotten out of hand. Between 1976 and 1983, medical professional liability insurance premiums increased 80 percent on a national basis. Typical annual insurance premiums in Michigan for an obstetrician/gynecologist rose from $12,868 in 1980 to $30,198 in 1985 — an increase of 135 percent. This trend simply cannot continue."

As of this writing, according to a spokesperson in Senator Binsfeld's (R), Maple City, office, four bills are before the State Senate regarding the above issues. Action is expected on the bills as early as October 17, 1985.

The bills would then move to the House for adoption.

Dr. George said the success of the effort is critical to everyone. "If we don't do something now about exorbitant court settlements and escalating professional liability premiums, these costs will ultimately result in higher health care bills for consumers."

From Our Corner...

This is going to be another one of our frequent bits and pieces of trivial sorts...we checked last years column and I didn't luck out like last week...so bear with us, we will try to fill this turkey with something...

Our boss, Mr. Milliman stopped by last Thursday as he and his wife Donna, were on their way back to Lansing from seeing their grandchildren up north in Rogers City...we asked him when he planned on sending in a substitute for the ol' fella, so that we may pass on some of our wisdom that we have amassed since 1938...we didn't get very far...as he left, all he said was not yet, your days in the salt mine has one year to go...so I guess, seeing that we have to eat and pay bills, we will be struggling with this turkey awhile longer...

An idle thought...for those who may be reading this portion of the Avalanche, we will be down in the Buckeye state for a few days of R & R, and to see how much T.J. and Stefany have grown in a couple of months...

Have you ever had the feeling of not being wanted?...we have, many times, but I think last Friday night topped it off for me...Thelma and I went to the hotel to eat, and while I was talking to a couple people before I made my way up to Gloria to see if our table was ready, I looked around for Thelma, and here she is, sitting with Arnie and Bernie Mauren, George and Betty Pamerleau and Col. Barney and Mary Dukes, our Hoosier friends...

Gloria mentioned that there was one more chair at the round table so why don't you join them...so I agreed, I wanted to eat and get home...I joined them, and within five minutes they all got up and left...Thelma and I had dinner by ourselves...now I know how King Arthur felt when he ate alone at the round table while his Knights were out slaying dragons...

We smiled Blue Saturday afternoon after listening to the U. of M. and MSU game...Bo made up for last years defeat by the Spartans with a 31-Zip score at East Lansing...I've got to find my M cap today so I can show Freddie at the post office that I hadn't thrown it away after last year's post season game against BYU...after the way the Spartans played against Iowa last Saturday, I figured this one would be a barn burner...it looks this year that Bo is believing that a good defense, is your best offense...only six points have they given up...

Another idle thought...won't it be nice when October 26th arrives...that's the night everyone will have the chance to witness the roasting of Irvin...this is a must for everyone to attend...we are sure you will enjoy the evening even if Irvin doesn't...we happily accepted the invitation to be one of the roasters...we still remember what he did to the ol' fella a few years back...Irvin has been servin too long, it is past time for everyone to serve Irv...

The following we swipe from the Michigan Press Bulletin...we couldn't resist, it's too familiar...

How to know when you are getting Older

Everything hurts and what doesn't hurt, doesn't work. The gleam in your eyes is from the sun hitting your bifocals. You feel like the night before, but you haven't been anywhere. Your little black book contains only names ending in M.D. Your children begin to look middle-aged. You finally reach the top of the ladder and find it leaning against the wrong wall. You join the health club but don't go. You decide to procrastinate but then never get around to it. Your mind makes contracts your body can't meet. A dripping faucet causes an uncontrollable bladder urge. You know all the answers, but nobody asks you the questions.

With that...one more week with water over the dam, and we will bid T.J., Stefany and Amber good-night...we'll be thinking of you while we are in Buckeye country...have a nice weekend, autumn is mighty short...

Morality Rights Issue

Who has the right to shape and control the morality of our youth? Do humanistic teachers have immunity from redress of grievances by offended parents? A public school teacher in Pennsylvania is suing 113 people for challenging her on the following moral practices:

This sex education teacher, who was also the girl's swim coach, had the girls swim in the nude, at times as a form of punishment. Along with her foul language, she encouraged the girls to accept her adult-oriented, sexually deviant gifts. She compelled girls to sit on her lap and kiss her. She described in detail physical positions for homosexual acts. She gave arguments to encourage homosexuality over heterosexuality. She forced students to defend homosexuality in debate contrary to their personal beliefs.

In her co-ed sex education class she read pornographic books on masturbation. She directed the students to use slang expressions for sex acts. She required the students to play "charades" and act out slang expressions for sex.

She advocated legalization of prostitution. She supported sex outside of marriage as acceptable. She supported abortion as another form of contraception. She encouraged the students to come to her house if they wanted to get drunk.

Hundreds of mothers, fathers, grandparents, neighbors, and concerned citizens signed petitions for investigation and redress of grievances against the tenured teacher. The teacher is now suing many of those who signed the petitions.

God says such sexual behavior is sin worthy of death. (Romans 1:32). "...He that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. (I Cor 6:18). Such sex sin sends souls to burn in hell for all eternity. (Jude 7) All sex outside of marriage is evil and sinful before a holy God.

Many of you remember the sick situation a few years ago, just a few miles from here. A teacher killed a student with a hammer and stuffed him into his car trunk during an alleged homosexual lovers' quarrel. How far must it go before parents awaken over moral issues concerning their own flesh and blood? Do parents have a basic right to determine the moral standards of their own children in their own family? What price do you place on the moral purity of your posterity? Parents have God given rights and responsibilities over government teachers concerning their own children.

STEP / TEEN Program

Homework that doesn't get done?
 Rooms that are not clean?
 Beer drinking at the football games?
 Arguments with no results?

Are these problems that get the most attention in your home? Do most discussions result in arguments that lead to hard feelings and are only stop gap measures? STEP/TEEN is designed to help parents deal with these and more serious problems arising in families with teenagers. The years between 12 and eighteen are generally difficult for parent and child. However, by recognizing self limiting behavior that encourage young adults to continue acting in ways that are disruptive and troublesome, parents can find new ways to ease the tension. Parents and teens together can learn new ways of communicating, building independence, mutual respect, responsibility, and love.

The STEP/TEEN discussion series will begin October 22, 7 p.m. at Mercy Hospital, in the Convent. Throughout this six week series, leaders and parents will learn:

- To recognize the seven goals of teenage misbehavior and how to respond to such misbehavior effectively
- How to counteract their own negative emotions as well as those of their teenagers.

For more information, contact Patricia Hanson at 348-5461, ext. 120.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of William Laurent, who passed away October 21, 1982.

Do not ask me if I miss him, for there's such a vacant place, oft' I think I hear his footsteps or I see his smiling face. For he left me brokenhearted. Friends may think the wound is healed, but they so little know the sorrow that is in my heart concealed.

RSVP Reports

by Aleta Thompson
 Director

This is the time of year when many RSVP volunteers begin to leave for the warmth of the southern states. Before you leave, call the RSVP office, give us your departure and return date, also your winter mailing address, so we may mail the newsletter to you, have a safe and healthy winter, we will miss you and look forward to seeing our snowbirds in the spring.

Our volunteers who worked at the Crawford County Historical Museum this past summer, were honored at a dinner held at the Holiday Inn, by the Historical Society. They were told by Elmer Fenton that the museum will be in a different location next summer, a possibility is the depot.

Our office in Roscommon county should be into operation by November 1st. We will have our new telephone number for that location in a couple of weeks, so our Roscommon county volunteers can call that office for information.

RSVP is a challenging and rewarding program here in Grayling. Our volunteers serve an average of four hours a month. The only criteria for participation in the program is that a person be 60 years or older.

If you are interested, come in to see us at our office on 308 Lawndale or call us at 348-8322 or 348-4341.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover

September 30 was the end of the fiscal and attendance year for us. During the period from October 1, 1985 to September 30, 1985 the Hartwick Pines State Park was host to a total of 191,284 people. Of that number only 36,646 people were campers and the rest were visiting only for the day. While this year was good so far as the number of visitors went, it was not as good as the previous year when a total of 201,540 people visited and camped here. The number of people taking part in the interpretive programs was up this year, but I did have a helper for the summer, which made a big difference where guided hikes and evening programs were concerned. The nice increase came in the number of special requests from schools and other groups. During the 1983 fiscal year, I conducted 87 such programs and during this last year a total of 106. Consider the distance some of the groups travel, this increase is good.

As a reminder, keep in mind that vehicle permits are required when you are anywhere in the park. This has been the case since 1983 when the entire park was placed under the vehicle permit law. The park headquarters is open from 8 a.m. until at least 4:30 p.m. and for a while yet the office in the picnic area will be open weekends. If you need a vehicle permit, either office is usually open. The new 1986 vehicle permits are normally available in mid-December, but the 1985 permits are still honored until January 1.

Sibs for Kids

Winter is a sad and lonely time for some, while others enjoy the white softness that seems to cover everything. If you are one of those people who like the snow, now would be your chance to share some of those activities that really are a large portion of winter, with some child who needs a friend.

The Crawford County Sibs for Kids attempts to meet the needs of these children with our Big Brother/Big Sister program. By doing this, you could open a number of doors to someone who might not have been able to reach the handle without your help.

It doesn't take a lot of time or money. The most important thing is to commit yourself and a few hours a week.

For further information on becoming a Big Brother or Big Sister or if you know of someone who could benefit from this, stop by our office on M-72 West, Grayling or call Kelly Fortino at 348-2841, ext. 282.

The Crawford County Sibs for Kids Program is a United Way supported agency.

Does Pridnia know the Role of the Legislature?

by Richard Millman

SOME SURPRISING philosophy made the public prints a while back, coming from State Rep. John Pridnia of Harrisville, whose northern Michigan district includes Presque Isle County.

Mr. Pridnia doesn't like the idea of a part-time legislature for Michigan, which is the subject of a current petition drive headed by Brighton businessman Richard Chrysler, who also wants to be governor. Mr. Pridnia has a lot of allies in the sitting legislature, which is not surprising.

When the legislature reconvened after one of its many recesses, Mr. Pridnia appeared on the floor of the House chamber wearing a burgundy sweatshirt, inelegantly emblazoned? "Up yours, Dick Chrysler."

THE LACK of taste and the implied vulgarity are matters which Mr. Pridnia should regret; they are definitely out of place for any state official or any elected official, regardless of the issue.

In addition, Mr. Pridnia violated one of the cardinal rules of political public relations: He is giving credence and publicity to his enemy.

Be that as it may, Mr. Pridnia is downright unhappy about the part-time legislature idea, and about Mr. Chrysler.

In a news story in The Detroit Free Press, Mr. Pridnia is quoted as saying that Mr. Chrysler "is grossly misrepresenting the facts." Pridnia continues:

"He avoids any mention of our true responsibilities as legislators...which are trying to solve problems of the communities we represent."

WELL, THAT'S certainly a new twist on things. Mr. Pridnia apparently is rewriting the Michigan Constitution, which directs legislators to formulate the laws for the state of Michigan, and not to "solve problems of communities."

The exact wording of the Constitution is: "The legislative power of the State of Michigan is vested in a senate and a house of representatives." That's all.

As a matter of additional fact, legislators are elected to represent people, not cities and towns and counties.

I confess to being on Mr. Chrysler's side in this matter, as a long-standing advocate of a part-time legislature. Nobody every told the Michigan legislature it must work around-the-calendar; like Topsy of literary fame, it just grew.

ONE REASON the legislature grew to year-around sessions—with commen-surate paychecks and fringe benefits — is that the legislature itself has expanded its influence to poking into problems of communities, such as Mr. Pridnia now seems to interpret as part of the mandate.

Another area where the legislature has expanded its influence — without any direction from its constitutional basis — is in state government oversight. Legislative committees are holding hearings and conducting investigations almost around the calendar; this certainly keeps the lawmakers' collective hand on the pulse of state government, and maintains a legislative check on possible executive branch excesses.

But, in a less charitable interpretation, it also borders on violation of the doctrine of separation of powers, and permits the legislative nose to butt into the day-to-day operations of the bureaus and departments of state government which make up the executive branch.

One of the more discouraging consequences of these developments is that the legislative staff has grown immensely, in all too many cases duplicating similar staff operations in the executive branch of state government. With a part-time legislature, central legislative staff and expenses would have to be reduced considerably — although the 1986 petition question does not require such reductions directly.

WHY HAS legislative influence and activity expanded so dramatically in recent years? The more cynical critic would contend that the lawmakers have formed year-around committees and held hearings and delved into community problems primarily to justify their full-time existence.

That may or may not be true; but it is true that the full-time legislature movement, with its growing pay levels and staff support, have all grown apace. It is the old question: Which came first — the chicken or the egg?

Mr. Pridnia is not alone among lawmakers in his criticism of those who favor the part-time status, although he is more questionably graphic than most. However, there are many lawmakers who are pushing the petition drive for the part-time legislature.

Maybe the communities which Mr. Pridnia thinks he represents would have fewer problems if Michigan lawmakers went home for six months or so every year.

Federal & State Liquor Taxes Go Into Effect

By Rep. Ralph Ostling

The 1985-86 fiscal year began this month for both the state and federal government and with its arrival two new tax increases on liquor went into effect. Beginning October 1, a 4% state excise tax on retail liquor and spirits was assessed, as was a 19% increase in the federal inventory floor tax.

The new state tax will help expand Detroit's Cobo Hall with money amassed from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. In the rest of the state, the proceeds will return to the counties where they were collected. The counties must use at least half of their additional revenue for substance abuse programs.

With the addition of the 4% state tax, Michigan will have five different levies on alcoholic beverages. They include a 1.85% tax for the Liquor Purchase Revolving Fund, a 4% sales tax, a 4% school aid tax and a 4% tax that adds money to the state's general fund.

The federal tax, imposed on wholesalers' inventory, is increasing from $10.50 to $12.50 per 100-proof gallon of liquor. The increase was part of the 1984 federal deficit reduction act. It is being reflected in price increases on various sizes of liquor bottles.

At the same time, some liquor manufacturers have increased their price. They have taken advantage of the tax increases to "hide" their own increases.

Because the price for packaged liquor is regulated by the state, costs should be the same from one store to another. Consumers will notice a difference in price increases when purchasing liquor by the glass. Bars and restaurants have the option of passing along the new taxes to customers or taking smaller profits.

House Fails To Override Essential Insurance Veto

The Michigan House failed last week to override Governor Blanchard's veto of the Essential Insurance bill and the vote is a setback for auto owners in our state.

I supported the veto override, which received 62 votes. The override failed to gather the 74 votes necessary to overturn the Governor's action.

The legislation passed the House and Senate with overwhelming support but the administration wouldn't listen to the voice of the people. The veto message issued in August resorted to public deceptions and fear tactics. Outstate policy holders will pay the price.

Under the bill, an automobile theft prevention authority would have been established to help crack down against auto thieves. The dramatic increase in auto thefts in southeast Michigan is a major source of concern for insurance companies and a motivating force behind the insurance reforms.

This veto will leave to substantial increases outstate in the coming year. As the law stands now, every time the rates increase in Detroit, they will also rise in outstate counties, even in regions where auto theft has declined. This is unfair.

There was bipartisan support to pass this legislation but unfortunately it was thwarted by the administration. The public deserves auto insurance reform, and I will continue to lead the fight for it.

Blanchard Says Mover Overruns To Come From Aid to S.E.M.T.A.

Warren M. Hoyt, Exec. Dir., MPA system acts to unconstitutionally deprive persons of voting rights.

"We believe most of these changes are attainable this year," Austin said.

At ceremonies commemorating the 10th anniversary of a state program allowing voter registration at secretary of state branch offices, Austin said the system has resulted in a "significant" increase in the number of registered voters, and that proportion of voting age persons who are registered is the highest among industrial states.

The five year "purge" of voter registration files was twice vetoed last year by Governor Blanchard, who said access to registration must be improved. Austin said the six-part proposal attempts to do that.

Rather than remove persons from the registration list after 10 years of not voting (four years in a non-voting active file and six in an inactive file), the proposal would erase registrations of persons who had not voted in five years.

Austin said he also supports legislation to permit reinstatement of cancelled registrations on election day for voters who could prove they were still residents.

To provide greater access, Austin proposed granting county clerks the power to appoint deputy registrars with countywide registration authority, instead of authority resting at city and township levels. The state would provide a standardized voter registration form.

Other proposals include: giving the Dept. of State authority to register voters at group meetings at the request of organizations sponsoring the events; eliminating requirements that voter registrations submitted by mail be notarized; and authorizing voter registration by mail for persons permitted to renew driver licenses by mail.

Austin also proposed using Department of State resources to provide local election officials with address changes and voter registration transactions completed in branch offices, as well as cancellations.

The Secretary of State also said since the branch office voter registration system was adopted, the number of persons registered and of those voting has increased faster than the growth of the voting age population.

A recent agreement, which releases $52.6 million in federal aid to complete the Detroit people mover project, provides that any future cost overruns be deducted from state aid to the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA), which has managed the project until now.

Governor James Blanchard said he was pleased the final memorandum of understanding does not require the state to cover potential overruns in a project that officials have agreed will cost $208.6 million, or $73.6 million over original estimates.

He had previously criticized U.S. Urban Mass Transportation Administrator Ralph Stanley for demanding a blank check from the state for completion of the project, although Stanley said that was not his intent.

The memorandum of understanding was signed by the Governor, Detroit Mayor Coleman Young, Stanley, and SEMTA. The SEMTA board approved details at an afternoon meeting, and the Detroit City Council must now approve the agreement assuming management of the project.

The keys to reaching final agreement were that the city, taking construction management of the project over from SEMTA, is to assume primary financial responsibility for any overruns, and that the state and city would take the necessary steps — deductions from the $51 million a year sent to SEMTA — if the city were unable to cover overruns.

Blanchard sent SEMTA Acting General Manager Albert Martin a letter notifying him of the possible deductions.

Young said he firmly believes that with the newly-hired Turner Construction Company as project manager, the 2.9 mile elevated transit system can be completed without further overruns and within its projected completion date of January, 1987, his press secretary Robert Berg said.

He said the priority is to finish the project, not worry about possible overruns.

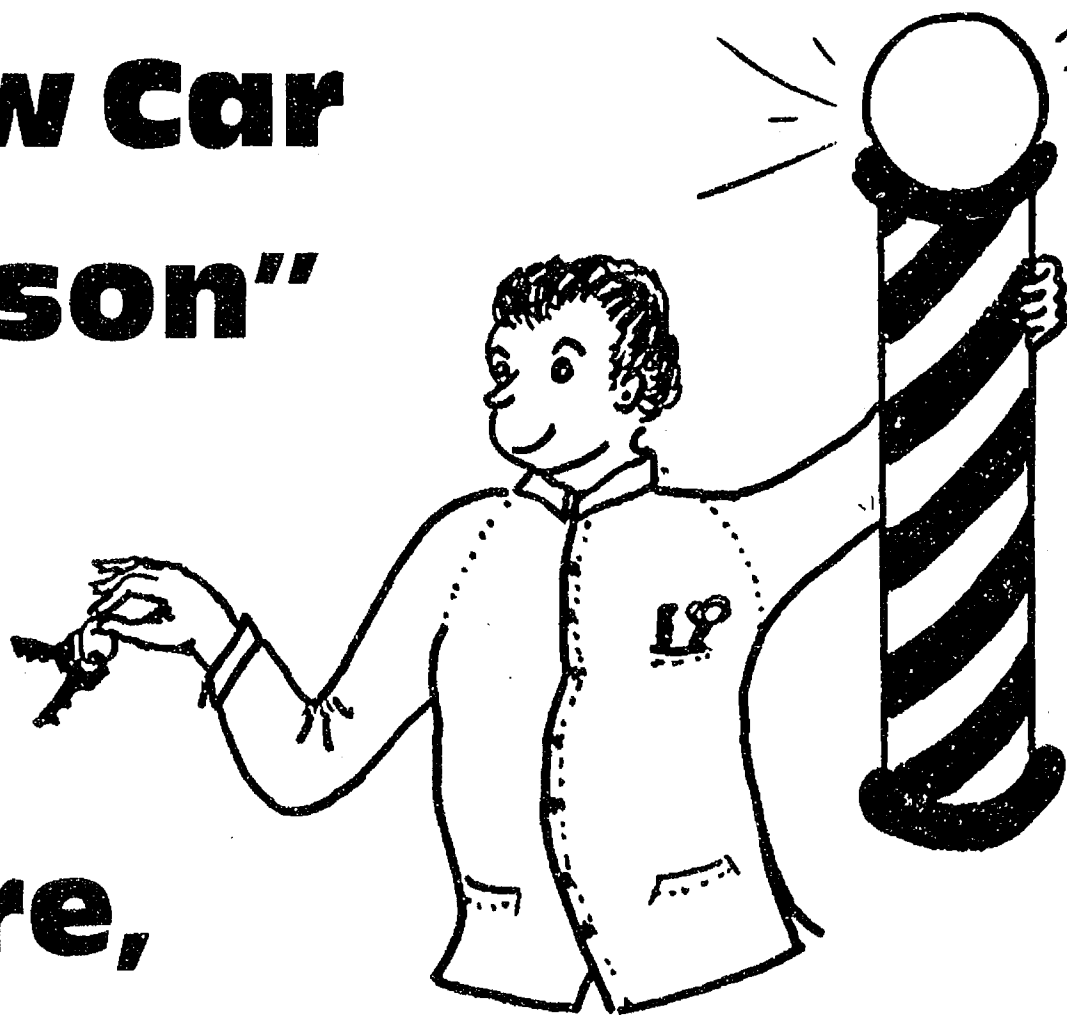

Austin Urges Five-Year Voter List Purge
Dropping persons from voter registration lists after five years of inactivity and broader local authority regarding deputy registrars has been proposed by Secretary of State Richard Austin.

Those and four other proposals respond to many complaints contained in a pending federal lawsuit that the deputy registrar

PSAT/NMSQT

This fall nearly 1.5 million students across the United States who take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) will have a special opportunity to familiarize themselves with the testing format also used on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).

On the PSAT/NMSQT, the 50 students taking the test at Grayling High School on October 22, at 9 a.m. can "preview" the exam process for the SAT — the prerequisite for many college-bound students, said Bill Klinger of the school guidance staff.

Since 1959, about 30 million high school students have taken the test, which measures verbal and mathematical abilities.

This year, the PSAT/NMSQT will be offered Saturday, October 19 or Tuesday, October 22 at almost 20,000 high schools nationwide.

Through the PSAT/NMSQT students are selected for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Program, which enables talented students to compete for scholarships.

Herbal Corner

Have you ever tried natural dyes? I know in hair rinses Sage is used for dark hair, Chamomile is used for blonds or light hair, and Henna is used for red hair; but have you ever tried plants for natural material dyes: i.e. caning, wool, cotton, etc.? I ran across a few bits and pieces of information that I would like to share with you.

Henna: One of the oldest and most reliable botanical dyes. Used the world over to dye hair, and by the Egyptians and Asiatics, for dyeing finger-nails an orange hue. Used to color cosmetics, shampoos, brilliantines, etc.

Madder: Roots are the source of a variety of colors, including scarlet red, alizarin red, turkey red, madder red, madder purple, madder yellow and madder brown. Roots are soluble in water, ether or alcohol. Madder has the singular property of imparting its color to the animal fluids when given along with food. In this way it tinges the milk, urine, and even the bones, thus affording proof that the digestive process does not in all cases destroy the natural properties of the substances taken into the stomach. Madder is used in food coloring, in cosmetics, lotions and pharmaceutical preparations. An interesting note from an 1821 book of "Useful Knowledge": "Cows are remarkably fond of the Madder plant, and when they freely eat of it, their milk becomes red, yet the cream which it affords, makes a yellow butter."

Marigold Flowers: Used to make a reddish violet hue. Put 1/2 ounce of flowers in a jar, and pour on a small quantity of boiling water. Allow to steep until desired shade is acquired.

I will share more during the winter months. In the meantime, keep warm thoughts and know that God loves you. You know you have to be somebody, cause God don't make junk.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick Conservation Officer

This is the time of year when we hear more and more references to a "10 pointer", a "six pointer" or a "spike". What those folks are talking about are antlers, a unique status symbol for man and more than 60 members of the deer family.

One of the most common misconceptions about antlers is that they are horns. Horns are made of keratin (as are your fingernails), appear routinely on both sexes and are permanent. Antlers, on the other hand, are made of bone, are generally found only on males and are temporary, being shed shortly after the mating season. In fact, antlers are deciduous, that is they grow and fall off on a yearly cycle as do the leaves of, say, a maple tree.

This cycle starts in the spring with hormonal changes within the animal. This stimulates growth within the pedicles or "buttons". Antlers grow faster than any other bone as blood vessels within the "velvet" deposit calcium and other minerals which gradually harden into bone. After a few months the velvet or skin dries up and is scraped off by the deer. The bone is white but is stained brown by the blood in the velvet that is removed.

Antler size is closely correlated to body size and weight. Obviously, diet is a major factor. The bigger the deer and its antlers, the better he can compete for mates. The rut, that period in late October and early November when the breeding instinct is strongest, will find many wise old bucks doing unexpected things to satisfy reproductive urges.

Sometime after the fall breeding season, usually in early winter, the antlers are shed and the deer prepares for another cycle to begin in the spring. The firearm deer season in Michigan is held after the rut is normally done. By then, most bucks are back to their normal elusive and wary selves.

Soil District Annual Meeting On Oct. 22nd

The Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District will hold its 18th Annual Meeting on Tuesday, October 22nd at the Gerrish Township Hall. Local landowners and conservation-oriented persons are urged to attend and learn more about what programs and services are available to them.

Reports will be given on forestry, District Work Crew projects, and 1985 MYC accomplishments—highlighting a special project on the Manistee River co-ordinating Trout Unlimited, Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation, Michigan Dept. of Natural Resources and the Soil Conservation Districts of Otsego and Crawford-Roscommon.

An election of two district directors will be held with nominees being: Harold Mertes, Glenn Schicker, Nels Ferguson, Robert Schular and Earl Sprunger.

Refreshments will be served and bring the family!

Saints Avoid Upset By Grayling This Year

St. Ignace took some of the fun out of Grayling's homecoming with a convincing 44-0 win. But the GHS junior class enjoyed the night winning the Homecoming Week Spirit Cup and taking first in the float competition.

The Saints scored first in the opening quarter. On the extra points attempt, the Vikings smelled out a half-back option and caused an incomplection.

In the second quarter, Grayling put together a drive and a 13-yard pass to Jason McEvers from Todd Klinger gave the Vikings a first down on the 17-yard line. Thoughts of Grayling's exciting 7-6 victory over state champions St. Ignace two years ago came back to Viking fans at that point.

Grayling tried three runs gaining only four yards. A fourth down pass was incomplete and the game changed. St. Ignace, ranked in the top ten in Class C, drove 86 yards to score with less than two minutes in the half. Grayling again stopped the extra-points.

The Vikings went to the air quickly and St. Ignace picked off a pass. The Saints, with less than 30 seconds to go, scored again to lead 18-0 at half.

The Saints, a powerful team that has won 88-0, 52-0, and 48-0 already this year, added a third quarter touchdown and three fourth quarter scores. They converted one extra-point attempt.

Tom Miller rushed 21 times for 62 yards. Jeff Wolcott rushed 12 times for 50 yards. Quarterback Todd Klinger was 9 for 17 for 49 yards. McEvers caught 3 for 18 yards, Wolcott 2 for 15, and George Duncan 2 for 11.

Ricky Sprague, Duncan, Jim Laurent, and Wolcott were the leading tacklers and Wolcott had one interception.

Grayling travels to Boyne City this Friday. Both Boyne and Grayling are 0-6 for the year.

The J.V. team also fell to St. Ignace 38-6. Grayling had an interception and a fumble on its first two possessions and the Saints scored two quick touchdowns. The Saints earned their next one to take a 22-0 half lead. Grayling fumbled twice again in the second half. On one fumbled pitch the Saints ran it in for a 45-yard score. The Saints also scored after the other fumble on a punt.

Grayling's bright spot was a 60-yard touchdown pass from Chris Skidmore to Craig Hudson.

Grayling Elementary School

Our class went to the airport. And there were three people who showed us around and their names are Jim Rys, Jim Dehlin, and Sue. I had Jim Rys. We walked there and when we got there, Jim Rys told us about engines and we got to see in a jet, four airplanes, and one helicopter. Actually we went to see what they were learning. They were learning how to put a propeller together, and about all the gadgets in the airplanes. We got to sit in the front seats. They had a board kind of like a map but it had a whole bunch of buttons and other gadgets.

One of the airplanes was on a slant and you could hardly stand up and the steering wheels you could pull in and out and part of the outside of the plane would move.

He showed us a whole bunch of tools, he showed us a thing that bends metal and a forklift, a whole bunch of barrels that were filled with oil. He told us how they get into the airplanes to fix them. On the back of the jet there is a lid that keeps the birds out because one of the birds got in the building got in the back of the jet and broke it. He told us that some people were riding in an airplane and a big bird was flying around and hit the propeller and stopped it.

dollars worth of damage to the Florida panhandle area and the Mississippi-Alabama Gulf Shore.

But most people don't remember that when a tornado ripped through Frederic in the spring of 1974 it was American Red Cross that was on the job first!

The tornado struck at 2 a.m. that Saturday morning and by 10:30 a.m. a volunteer Disaster Worker was hanging a Red Cross Disaster Headquarters banner on the Library-Township Hall Building in Frederic. She had been awakened at 5 a.m. that morning in her home in Saginaw by the Detroit Red Cross Headquarters; told of the tornado at Frederic and instructed to go there at once to provide food, clothing shelter where needed to the victims.

By 11 a.m. she had showed two Crawford County Red Cross Volunteers how to make out orders for food, clothing and shelter on the merchants of the victim's choice to cover their needs.

By 3 p.m. the following Sunday afternoon every victim had been rendered disaster relief — almost $5000 worth of food, clothing and shelter, and the orders were charged to the Crawford County Chapter who had less than $800 in their account at the Grayling State Bank.

The Disaster Relief Worker from Saginaw said not to worry, National Red Cross would have funds wired to the Grayling State Bank for the Chapter's account first thing Monday morning; and National would provide the money needed as our Chapter didn't have enough to render proper Red Cross Disaster Relief.

National Red Cross did provide the funds and took care of all the Frederic folks needing relief.

Since 1977, however, Crawford County Chapter has been able to assume full financial responsibility for Crawford County Disaster Relief.

In that period this Chapter has provided relief to thirty families who have had their homes burned out without insurance, and have given those thirty families over $15,000 worth of food, clothing, and in some instances temporary shelter as well, out of their own funds. This relief has averaged $500 per family burn out.

Don't you think it is vital to the folks of Crawford County that this Disaster Relief continue to be available to the victims of disaster?

It takes money to provide such Disaster Relief, however, and if you think the folks of Crawford County need this disaster protection, won't you please help Red Cross help such victims — remember some day it could be you — and send a contribution to Crawford County Chapter/Crawford Red Cross, RR 2, Box 2515, Grayling, 49738?

Women of the Moose

The Mooseheart committee are planning a Christmas party for Moosehaven Elderly and Mooseheart children. They will be having games and lots of nice things to do. On October 21st right after the meeting, all members were asked to donate some money to send down, not gifts, a Christmas tree and Christmas music and everything that goes along with Christmas.

Lunch to be served afterwards. All lodges and women of the Moose have done this kind of program for years. This is the only way they get the things they need.

Around 21 years ago, one of our members went down to Moosehaven and she saw what was done at Thanksgiving time, they put two long tables together and filled them with all kinds of good things to eat, fresh fruit, and everything that goes along with Thanksgiving. If they do that at Christmas time, it sure must be something to see.

The Men of the Moose 1162 are invited to come down for lunch afterwards and also play games with us.

Grayling Comeback Falls Just Short Again

Don't give up on the Grayling girl's basketball team. They're a young team and they like to come back.

Last week they fought back from a 14-point fourth deficit to lose at the buzzer to Gaylord. This week they spotted St. Ignace a 21-0 lead and came back to nearly tie the game in the third quarter before losing 48-43.

Tom Mills, the Vikings coach, said despite their 1-8 record so far, this team could turn things around.

"If the girls stay with it, they could surprise a lot of people at the end of the year," said Mills. "We've been in every game."

The Viking squad, which has only three seniors, started out with the hard part of the schedule, six out of nine away games. Additionally, Grayling had to play two of its home games away from Grayling High School because of a leak in the roof. They played at the Grayling Middle School in a gym they don't practice at — taking away the home court advantage that some coaches consider to be worth about six to eight points in the girls' Michigan Huron Shores Conference games.

Grayling could have used those six to eight points last Thursday in their five-point defeat at the middle school to St. Ignace. And the Vikings could have really used those points early in the game when St. Ignace ran up a 21-0 lead.

St. Ignace used a press effectively against Grayling and the shots weren't falling for the Vikings as the first quarter ended 19-0. St. Ignace added salt to the wound by scoring the first basket of the second quarter to make it 21-0.

Then Grayling started another comeback. They outscored the Saints 17-5 before the half. At the end of the third quarter they closed to within two, 33-31. Then St.

Ignace won with free throws in the fourth quarter. Grayling outscored the Saints by eight points from the field for the game but St. Ignace hit 14 of 26 free throws to Grayling's 1 of 4.

Michelle Moore scored 19 to lead Grayling. Stacey Hinds had 5, Kim Springer, Shawn Denton, and Michelle Trudeau 4 each, Dena Thayer, Katherine Kraus, Jennifer Ojala, and Jenni Branch 2 each.

The Vikings dropped a 54-45 game to Charlevoix last Tuesday on the road. Grayling was outrebounded two to one and Mills said that was the key to the game.

Springer and Denton each hit 15 points, Moore had 11, Trudeau 2 and Thayer 2.

Consumers should feel free to ask their pharmacist questions about the medicines they take and Michigan Pharmacist Week, October 13-19, 1985, is the time when pharmacists across the state, encourage individuals to begin doing just that.

"Your pharmacist...Educated for You," is the theme for this year's Michigan Pharmacist Week. Through a special proclamation from Governor James J. Blanchard, Michigan Pharmacist Week has been declared a time for pharmacists across the state to promote their image to the public. The pharmacist of the 1980's is a highly trained and knowledgeable professional; capable of providing specialized patient services.

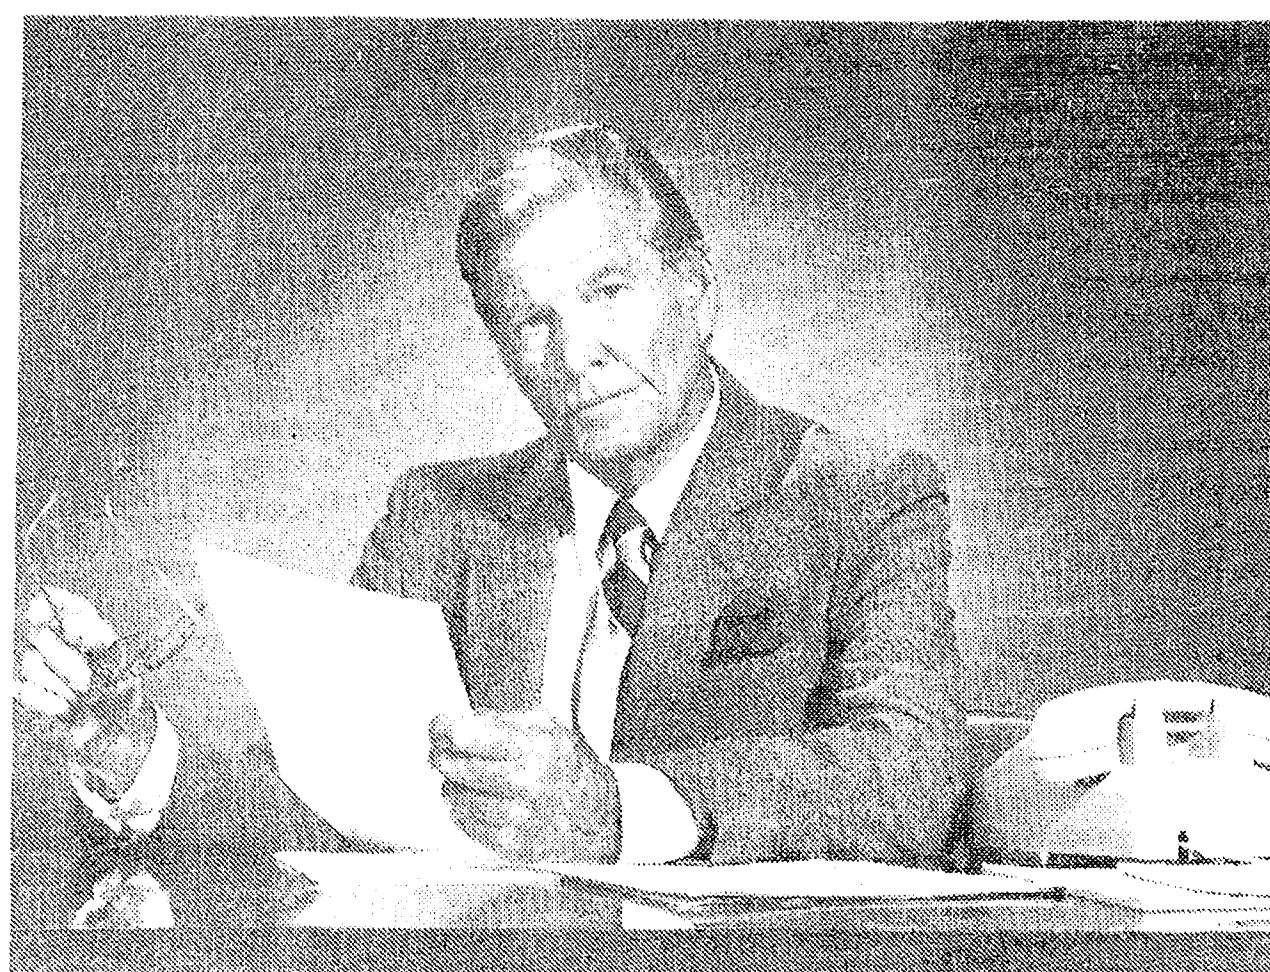

With the help of your pharmacist, you can learn more about the prescription and over-the-counter medications you take, including cautions you should be aware of; drug interactions, storage and labeling information, and the importance of keeping to your prescription schedule.

After five years of study at an accredited college or university, completion of internship requirements, and successful completion of a multiday examination, a pharmacist is licensed to practice by the Michigan State Board of Pharmacy. A pharmacist is also required to complete at least 15 hours of continuing education per year.

Your pharmacist...educated for you, is your prescription to good health. As a member of the health care team, your pharmacist is dedicated to providing you a variety of services to meet all of your health care needs. Utilize the knowledge of your family pharmacist by talking to your pharmacist today.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

THE BOTTOM LINE

The world of business and finance has helped us understand the spiritual challenge in life.

That remarkable idiom the bottom line reminds everyone that opportunity involves uncertainties, obligations, responsibilities. These must all be weighted against the ultimate REWARD.

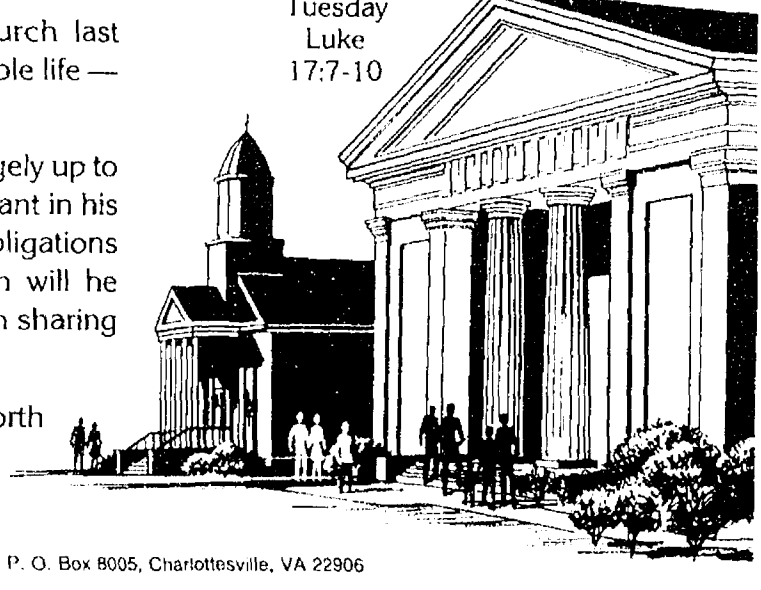

A friend of ours went to Church last Sunday. That may change his whole life — and the life of his family.

But there are uncertainties. Largely up to him! Will worship become important in his life? Is he ready to accept the obligations serving God involves? How soon will he discover the joy of responsibility in sharing God's love?

As they say in business "It's worth all the effort when you realize the bottom line!"

Mr. Howard Madsen,
Editor
Crawford Co. Avalanche
Grayling, Mi 49738

Dear Mr. Madsen:
Joseph V. Wilcox, A.B., J.D., T.U., R.A.B.A. is to be commended for being "an opponent of deliberate abortion." If a man is concerned about human babies in the waters of the mother's womb, I am little concerned about his treatment of trout in the waters of the AuSable. It means little to me if he brands me a nonsequitur guilty of paralogism, as long as he agrees that killing babies is wrong. That was the whole logic of my argument and basis for all discourse about the fish.

Instead of giving up on people and preaching to the fish like St. Anthony of Padua did, I decided to preach to the people through the fish of the AuSable. The trout don't seem to mind, and more people seem to listen when I talk through fish. (Instead of a mitre which I don't have). In fact, our message reached all the way to Presbyterians in Pennsylvania via river trout. Incidentally, I love Bible-believing Presbyterians, many of my ancestors were of that strain.

I can say with the apostle Paul, "We are fools for Christ's sake..." (1 Cor 4:10). "Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe... Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men... For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." (1 Cor 1:20, 21, 25, 18).

One statement of Joseph V. Wilcox, A.B., J.D., T.U., R.A.B.A. is scripturally wrong: "...the trout of the AuSable, beasts ferae naturae as they may be, are definitely the property of Caesar..." "Every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine. If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof." Psalm 50:10-12. "Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine." (Job 41:11). "The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein." (Psalm 24:1). "The heaven and the heaven of heavens is the Lord's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is." (Deut 10:14). "The Lord your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath." (Josh. 2:11). God not government, owns everything! We are but stewards.

We use few sesquipedalian words, "...we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth..." (1 Cor 2:13). Our feet are not discolored, but "shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace." (Eph 6:15). Thank you for reading "The Bible Speaks".

Pastor "B"
(The Least Reverend Bishop of Grayling)

Mr. Howard Madsen,
Editor
Crawford Co. Avalanche
Grayling, Mi 49738

Dear Mr. Madsen:
I read with interest the October 3, 1985 article by the AuSable Ministerial Association on injustice. They stated and I quote, "we are opposed to injustice of any kind, any place, anywhere." After reading the article several times my interest turned to concern.

It would seem that "apartheid" is the apex of injustice to the Ministerial Association. We all know that racism is wrong. Our country fought a war over racism and we still are having problems with it. But it can be dealt with and progress achieved.

The greatest injustice to the world today is communism and humanistic religion. Both work hand in hand to achieve globalism. We need only highlight from the post W.W.II years to present the communist track record on human rights. Remember Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Cuba, Korea, Vietnam and Afghanistan? Many Korean and Vietnam veterans, including myself fought the atrocities of communism. In speaking of humanistic religion, we need only look at the World Council of Churches. They are supporting and funding communistic aggression in Central America.

Why does the Ministerial Association speak out against "apartheid" but keep silent on communism and the World Council of Churches? Think of the injustice they are causing!

The Bible clearly teaches what a christian's attitude should be towards sin, and how God views it. "Apartheid" is wrong, but what about abortion, pornography and sexual depravity which are tearing at our country's very heart? Shouldn't these injustices to humanity be openly opposed by christian leaders? Shouldn't the Ministerial Association urge the government of the U.S. and all elected officials and all citizens of this land to obey God's Word on these sin issues?

In closing, I would like to say that to my knowledge Pastor Barnett is the only minister in Grayling that openly opposes the globalism of communism and the one world church philosophy of the World Council of Churches. He also is the only minister to my knowledge that has publicly opposed the sin issues mentioned in this article. My question is, Why?

Sincerely,
Michael P. Corlew

Report from the Band Boosters

Growth and Improvement! A program has been initiated to lease several new instruments, which at the end of five years will become the property of the band department. The lower brass, lower woodwind, and percussion instruments will increase our band potential.

Director Ormsbee's enthusiasm is contagious, not only to the young people he is instructing, but also to the members of the Band Boosters Club. A few of the fund raising goals we are working toward are as follows:

1. Sound system in the high school band room - speakers need to be repaired and stereo components need to be purchased.
2. Uniform sweaters with the middle school logo and name need to be purchased for the marching band.
3. Establish a collection of black shoes for band members unable to purchase their own.

4. Establish music scholarships for summer and collegiate programs.
5. Establish a fund to provide for expenses on band trips to performances and competition in other areas of the state.
6. Sponsor the Northern Michigan Band Festival.

The primary concern of the Band Boosters is to help support and encourage the band as a group and individually. It is possible for ours to become one of the best high school bands in the state. The monthly meeting will be held on Monday, October 21st, at 7:30 p.m. in the band room at the high school. Everyone is welcome whether you have a child in the band or not. Bring a friend and an idea!

Behavior Modification Class Site Changed

What is Behavior Modification?

Behavior modification, applied to weight control, is a method of treatment designed to identify problem eating behaviors. Once identified these problem behaviors can be gradually replaced with others that are more conducive to weight loss and maintaining weight loss. It is a method that helps the participant overcome the barriers that cause the repeated lose-gain syndrome.

A panel appointed by the International Congress on Obesity found that an interdisciplinary program - one that includes behavior modification, diet, physical activity, and emotional support - is likely to maximize the odds of long-term weight loss. The Rainbow Fitness "Behavioral Weight Control Program" meets these criteria.

The program is scheduled to begin October 17, at 7:00 p.m. in room 5 at the Crawford Ausable High School. Advanced registration is requested. For further information please call 348-7263.

Active Chamber Helps Area

By Deryl Holmes

We happen to be very fortunate in Grayling to have an active Chamber of Commerce. Many community chambers act as disseminators of information only — answering inquiries, handing out brochures and giving directions to vacationers.

Not so in Grayling. One of the reasons for this is the strong and effective leadership we have had in the Chamber in the past two years. Walt Nowak and Terry Wright assisted by Joyce Kolka, have guided the Chamber excellently. Through their efforts, membership has increased and the Chamber has been strengthened.

Today, the Grayling Area Chamber of Commerce has 235 members. This is an increase of 100 members over the past years. From the membership growth, we can get an idea of the effective leadership style of the Chamber staff.

The new, attractive building in the park has contributed to the strength of the Chamber. Visits to the Chamber have increased 300 percent since moving from the City Building. In the first full year of operation at the new location, nearly 5,000 people came to the office. An additional 3,000 phone calls were received during the same period. In the month of August, 1985, the Chamber had 848 walk-ins, that's an average of 27.3 per day.

This year the Chamber will print 50,000 brochures containing the promotions of several of the Chamber members. Ten thousand brochures will be sent to the Michigan Travel Bureau for distribution to the information centers located throughout the state. Several thousand are mailed and carried to various exhibits and shows in Michigan and outlying states.

The Chamber acts as the catalyst in getting members involved in community activities. Projects like Milltown Festival, the Winter Carnival and other events bring many visitors to the area and involve the members in planning and staffing programs and events.

Recently, Mr. Wright has become more active in attracting new businesses and industries to the area. Crawford and Roscommon counties are two of the fastest growing areas in the state. Mr. Wright is using this information to help get new business to come to the area. He recently visited the Commerce Department in Lansing in an effort to intensify his efforts in economic development.

Mr. Wright is making an effort to involve other communities in the Chamber. He has attended meetings in Frederic, Roscommon and St. Helen in an effort to unite the Grayling Area Chamber of Commerce, and to help direct the activities of all the communities towards a single goal.

The bottom line to a successful chamber is membership involvement. It's not enough to pay your dues and expect the chamber to promote the community and your business. It takes a team effort. Members sharing ideas, tasks and planning functions working towards successful promotional programs. The best way to discover how your chamber works for you, is to get involved with your chamber.

Ambassador's Club

By: Kathy Ashton

John is the Vice-President of the Grayling State Bank. He has resided in Grayling all of his life. John and his wife Cheryl, live on Lake Margrethe with their two children.

John was elected into the Chamber of Commerce as President in June of 1984. His position runs until May of 1987.

John is a very civic minded person and is involved and contributes a lot to the community.

One of the objectives of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce this year is to establish an Ambassador's Club consisting of the sixteen Chamber Past Presidents who are currently still living in the area.

A meeting of this group was held recently with preliminary groundwork being laid to sponsor "Business After Hours." This event will be an informal, fun meeting which will provide business persons an opportunity to tell each other about their products and services.

Business Feature

(This is a Photograph of the Rialto Theatre back in 1930)

One of Grayling's oldest business establishments, the Rialto Theatre has been family owned and operated continuously since 1915. Located at 302 Michigan Avenue, the theatre has undergone many structural changes over the years.

Originally the Grayling Opera House, the building also housed the Masonic Temple, and was built in the 1880's. The theatre's founder, the late George N. Olson, joined the company in 1911, and purchased the business in 1915. Totally destroyed by fire during a full house performance, the Opera House was replaced by the present Rialto Theatre in 1930. It was also in that year that Olson Theatres was organized, with the late W. James Olson as partner and general manager. The theatre operation was owned by the Olson brothers, and included the Rialto-

Grayling, The Pines-Houghton Lake, The Gaylord, The Midstate-West Branch, The Ideal-Clare, The 55-Hi Drive In of Houghton Lake, The Sky-Hi Drive In of Gaylord, and the Sundown Drive In at Rosebush.

The Olson Theatres were split up and sold during the 1960's, but the Rialto in Grayling is still owned by the Stancil family. Mrs. Georgiana Stancil is the daughter of the founder.

The Rialto Theatre has been a member in good standing of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce, from its inception.

Grayling Milltown Festival News

By Terry Wright

Milltown Festival '86' is already in the planning stages. We are very happy to announce that the new Milltown Chairperson will be Sister Mary Ellen Howard of Mercy Hospital. We are very fortunate to have a person such as Sister Mary Ellen to lead our Festival. Working very closely with past chairman, Ivan Gwilt, Sister Mary Ellen has promised us a larger and even more successful Milltown Festival in 1986. Knowing her skills and resources to draw on we believe her and look forward to working with her.

The Milltown Parade in 1986 will be in the capable hands of the Grayling Promotional Association. We all know what good organizers they have been and we, at the Chamber, feel they will do a great job with the parade.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce has been the hub of the community for many years. Records show that Jerome Kessler was President back in 1948. Early in the 1950's the Chamber faltered for a couple of years but pulled itself up by the bootstraps and became incorporated on June 22, 1955.

What is the Chamber of Commerce? It is an organization of businesses and residents who have banded together to advance the commercial, financial, industrial, and civic interests of the community. It is a civic clearinghouse, public relations representatives at the local, state, and national levels of government.

The Chamber of Commerce sponsors seminars for the older and more established businesses as well as the new. The door is always open to new ideas and they are gladly passed on to its 235 members.

Fun and entertainment for the community as well as for the visitors to the area is responsibility of the Chamber. It always sponsors the annual events such as the Milltown Festival, Winter Carnival and the Orange Coat Roundup.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce also hosts grand openings and ribbon cuttings for new businesses and new owners of existing businesses.

Our Chamber's goal is to not only bring more people and new money into the community, but to maintain and increase the earning power of those who are already here. A prosperous community is what we want - and that's how you can help!

Dining Out

By: Terry Wright

In each issue of the Chamber Newsletter I will try to feature a meal that I have enjoyed at one of our member restaurants.

A Beef Burrito was the specialty of the night at the Frederic Inn. Full of Beef, lettuce, sauce and smothered with cheese, onions and peppers. This Burrito was one of the best I've had anywhere. With the addition of either hot salsa or jalapeno peppers you can raise the flavor to the desired temperature. I preferred a topping of sour cream which tended to tone down the hot while enhancing the flavor.

All in all a very good dinner which I highly recommend to anyone.
